

PRIVACY POLICY
www.fni.it and www.shop.fni.it

Dear User,

this privacy policy describes, pursuant to and for the purposes of art. 13 of EU Regulation 679/2016 (General Data Protection Regulation, hereinafter GDPR), the methods by which Forniture Nautiche Italiane S.r.l. a socio unico (Forniture Nautiche Italiane) - as Data Controller - processes the data provided by the User through the websites www.fni.it and www.shop.fni.it.

The processing of personal data will be performed in compliance with the principles of lawfulness, transparency, fairness and respect for the User's privacy and rights, always in accordance with national and European legislation currently in force.

Data Controller

According to articles 4 and 24 of GDPR, the Data Controller is Forniture Nautiche Italiane S.r.l. a socio unico, Via Val di Cecina 66/C - 57023, Cecina (LI).

Email address: privacy@fni.it

Phone: 0586 662424

Type of data collected

The personal data processed are those provided by the User and those that, eventually, will be acquired in the course of relations between Forniture Nautiche Italiane and the User himself.

Specifically, the data processed through the website www.fni.it are the following:

- a) navigation data. The computer systems and software procedures used to operate this website may acquire, during their normal operation, some data whose transmission is implicit in the use of Internet communication protocols. This category of data could include IP addresses or domain names of the computers used by users who connect to the site, URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the resources requested, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given to the server (successful, error, etc..) and other parameters relating to the operating system and computer environment. These data are used for the sole purpose of receiving anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning and are deleted immediately after processing;
- b) data provided directly by the User through the "Ask the expert" section (name, surname, email address, telephone and province of residence and any other data provided voluntarily in the "application" area). This data is used exclusively to allow the Owner to provide an answer to the specific question asked by the User;
- c) data provided directly by the User through the "Contacts" section. In addition to the data collected after the User sends a message by e-mail to the e-mail addresses indicated on the site in order to receive information or request a specific service, through the appropriate form are acquired: name, surname, email, telephone, city, country and any other data that the User enters in the "message" section. These data are used exclusively for the purpose of processing the User's requests;
- d) personal data, including "special categories" of data, contained in CVs that should be sent to the e-mail addresses indicated in the "Contact" section of the site. In this case, the Data Controller - in accordance with the provisions and guidelines of the Privacy Authority - will provide information on the processing of data contained in the curriculum at the time of the first useful contact with the candidate.

The data processed through the website www.shop.fni.it are the following:

- a) navigation data;
- e) email address provided by the User to subscribe to the newsletter. By subscribing to the mailing list or newsletter, the User's email address is automatically included in a list of contacts to which email messages containing information, including commercial and promotional information, relating to Forniture Nautiche

Italiane may be sent. The User's email address may also be added to this list as a result of registration to the website or for having made a purchase, after requesting express consent through the appropriate flag. The address management and message sending service is provided by MailUp S.p.a., a qualified Data Processor;

- f) data provided directly by the User following registration on the website (Login). In this case the data acquired by the Data Controller are: e-mail, address, city, VAT number, country, telephone and any other data spontaneously provided through the "message" section. This data is collected in order to allow the registration of the User to the website and the use of the online goods sale service. Through this section are not collected bank data or other data necessary to perfect the payment;
- g) data provided directly by the User through the "Contact Us", i.e. mail and any other data provided in the "attachment" and "message" sections. The User, by filling in the contact form with his/her own data, consents to their use to respond to requests for information, quotes or any other nature indicated in the header of the form;
- h) personal data, including "special categories" of data, contained in CVs eventually sent by the User to the email addresses indicated on the site.

Purpose and legal basis of the processing

The data provided will be processed in compliance with the conditions of lawfulness pursuant to Article 6 of the GDPR for the following purposes:

- to execute the User's requests and answer questions through the "Ask the Expert" and "Contact Us" sections active on the websites or through the email addresses indicated in the footer of the website and in the "Contact Us" section. In this case, the processing of the data collected and stored has as its legal basis the legitimate interest of the Data Controller (article 6, letter f of the GDPR) to be more efficient, to provide information on the services offered, and to improve and develop new products and services;
- to implement all contractual and pre-contractual measures adopted at the request of the User concerned, as well as all related operational and management requirements. The legal basis in this case is the need to execute the contract to which the User concerned is a party or to implement pre-contractual measures (Article 6, letter b of GDPR);
- to comply with the legal obligations to which the Data Controller is subject. In the latter case, the legal basis is represented by the need to comply with legal obligations that require the Data Controller to collect and/or further process certain types of personal data (Article 6, letter c of GDPR);
- processing of data contained in CVs received is lawful as necessary to implement pre-contractual measures (Article 6(b) of the GDPR) taken at the request of the data subject. The processing of "special categories" of data is lawful on the basis of the Garante's Provision of 5 June 2019 supplementing and amending the General Authorisation no. 1/2016.

Nature of data provision

With the exception of navigation data, necessary to implement computer and telematic protocols, the provision of personal data by Users is free and optional. However, with specific regard to the provision of personal data marked with an asterisk (*), failure to provide such data will make it impossible for the User to send the request and/or use the desired service. The provision of further data is, instead, purely optional.

Processing that requires the express consent of the User

With the express consent of the User, personal data may be processed by the Data Controller for commercial and promotional purposes. If the User gives his/her consent, therefore, he/she may receive commercial communications, also through automated contact tools (newsletter).

Place of processing

The data are processed at the registered and operational offices of the Data Controller, in any other place where the parties involved in the processing are located, as well as at the host servers, under the responsibility of the bandwidth and domain providers. For further information, please contact the Data Controller.

Methods of processing

The Data Controller carries out the processing required in compliance with national privacy legislation, as well as in compliance with the GDPR. Personal data will be processed using both paper and automated/telematic methods and with logic strictly related to the above purposes, ensuring the use of appropriate measures for data security and guaranteeing the confidentiality of the same.

The Data Controller will process personal data in compliance with current security regulations in order to minimize the risks of destruction and loss, even accidental, of data; unauthorized access; processing that is not permitted or does not comply with the purposes of data collection and illicit or incorrect use of data.

Data retention

The data are and/or will be processed for the time strictly necessary to fulfil the User's requests or - in general - to achieve the purpose for which they were collected. They will also be kept for the entire duration of the commercial and contractual relationship and even afterwards for the fulfilment of legal obligations and/or for administrative, commercial and fiscal purposes. The data collected for marketing purposes will be kept for a maximum of 24 months from the date of the last contact. In any case, the User may always request the interruption of processing or deletion of data.

At the end of the storage period, personal data will be deleted. Therefore, at the end of this period, the right of access, cancellation, rectification and the right to portability of data can no longer be exercised.

Communication and disclosure

The User's data will not be disseminated, divulged or made known to unspecified parties in any way, including by making them available.

For purposes related to the provision of the requested service, the data may be communicated and/or made available to the following subjects:

- subjects authorized to process the data, always according to the instructions given by the Data Controller;
- subjects who have the right to access the data in accordance with provisions of law, regulation or European legislation, within the limits and for the purposes provided for by these rules;
- other companies providing services, as autonomous data controllers or data processors, duly appointed;
- banks, credit institutions, debt collection companies, insurance agencies.

Data transfer

The User is informed that his/her personal data will not be transferred abroad to countries outside the EU that do not ensure adequate levels of personal data protection. Should this be necessary to provide you with the services or to conclude a contract, we ensure that the transfer of your personal data to countries outside the EU that do not ensure an adequate level of protection will be carried out in accordance with Articles 44 et seq. of EU Regulation 679/2016.

Google Analytics (Google LLC)

Google Analytics is a web analysis service provided by Google LLC (Google). User Rights

Pursuant to articles 15 and following articles of EU Regulation 679/2016, the User - with reference to the data processed by the Data Controller - has the right to:

- revoke at any time the consent to the processing of their data previously expressed;
- access the data processed by the Data Controller, obtain information on certain aspects of the processing and receive a copy of the processed data (Article 15 of the GDPR, right of access);
- verify the correctness of your data and request that it be updated or corrected (Article 16 of GDPR, right of correction);
- obtain the deletion or removal of your personal data by the Data Controller (article 17 of GDPR, right to deletion);
- obtain limitation of the processing of their data, when certain conditions are met (Article 18 of the GDPR, right to limitation of processing);
- to receive their data in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format and, where technically feasible, to obtain their transfer without hindrance to another Data Controller (Article 20 of the GDPR, right to portability);
- oppose the processing of their data when this is done on a legal basis other than consent (Article 21 of GDPR, right of opposition). When personal data is processed in the public interest, in the exercise of public powers vested in the Data Controller or to pursue a legitimate interest of the Data Controller, the User has the right to object to the processing for reasons related to his/her particular situation;
- lodge a complaint with the competent data protection supervisory authority (for Italy, Privacy Guarantor, <https://www.garanteprivacy.it/>) or take legal action if you believe that the processing of your personal data is contrary to the legislation in force.

To exercise these rights, the User may address a request to the contact details of the Data Controller indicated in this document. Requests are deposited free of charge and processed by the Data Controller as soon as possible, in any case within one month.
